REV. THOMAS WHAREY, A. M., D. D.,

Principal.

WILLIAM H. WHITING, A. B.,

(FIRST HONOR GRADUATE OF HAMPDEN SIDNEY COLLEGE,)

Assistant.

THE ninth session of this school for young men and boys will commence on the 1st of September, 1882, and close on the 12th of June following.

TUITION FOR THE SESSION.

English Studies,	$50 00
English and Classical Studies (including Latin, Greek, and Higher Mathematics),	60 00
Modern Languages (including French and German),	10 00
Contingent fee, $2.00 in advance—to be returned at the close of the session, if no damage is done.

Payments quarterly in advance. Charges made from time of entrance to end of session. No deduction is made for absence, except in case of sickness protracted to more than one month.

LOCATION.

This school, situated in the village of Worsham, Prince Edward County, Va., is one mile from Hampden Sidney College, and seven miles from Farmville, the nearest depot on the line of the Norfolk and Western railroad. It is accessible from Farmville by two lines of daily stages, and has a daily post. Its location guarantees for it a salubrious climate, and the beneficent social influences of a community eminent for piety, courteous hospitality, and intellectual culture.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study is designed to prepare pupils for entrance into the higher classes of college or university, or, in cases where this is not contemplated, for the active duties of life.

This is divided into the following sections :

I. The English Department: including Arithmetic, English Grammar, Descriptive and Physical Geography, Ancient and Modern History, and Book-Keeping, with special attention to Orthography, Elocution, Penmanship, and English Composition.

TEXT-BOOKS.—Venable's and Fish's Arithmetics, Maury's series of Geographies, Whitney's Essentials of English Grammar, Smith's Histories of Greece and England, Liddell's History of Rome, Holmes' History of the United States, Bryant and Stratton's Common School Book-Keeping.

II. The Classical Department: including Latin, Greek, and Higher Mathematics.

TEXT-BOOKS.—Bingham's, and Allen & Greenough's Latin Grammars, Bingham's Latin Reader, Cæsar, Virgil, Cicero, Horace, Livy, Tacitus, Original Latin Exercises. Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Greek Exercises and Reader, Xenophon's Anabasis, Plato, Thucydides. Ray's Algebra, Wentworth's Geometry, Wheeler's Trigonometry, Surveying, Puckle's Conic Sections, Courtenay's Calculus, Original Exercises.

III. The Modern Languages, including French and German.

TEXT-BOOKS.—Fasquelle's French Course, Schele de Vere's Reader, Telemaque, Charles XII, Otto's German Grammar, Evans' Otto's Reader, Lessing's Minna Von Barnhelm.

It shall be the aim of the Principal to establish in this school not only a high standard of scholarship, but also a dignified tone of moral sentiment. The methods of instruction will be those that have been adopted with most success in the well known high schools of Virginia. The Principal will always be aided by one or more well qualified and faithful assistants.

EXAMINATIONS.

The progress of the pupils will be tested, not only by daily recitations, but also by examinations, oral and written. The Intermediate examination, held in the month of December, will cover the ground gone over in the previous part of the session; the Final examination, held in the month of June, will embrace the course of the whole session.

R E P O R T S.

Monthly reports of class standing and deportment are sent to the parent or guardian of each pupil, and reports are sent after both Intermediate and Final examinations. The Principal earnestly begs that these reports receive attentive inspection, and that the weight of parental authority be used to enforce his efforts for the advancement of his pupils.

P R I Z E S.

As an incentive to study, and that young men may, by their own industry, be enabled to prosecute their future studies, the Principal will offer as Prizes, one scholarship in Hampden Sidney College, Va.; one in Davidson College, N. C., and one in his own School. These scholarships will entitle the recipients of them to free tuition for one session in the institutions named.

L I T E R A R Y S O C I E T Y.

A Literary Society has been organized by the students, with Mr. Whiting as President, which has excited great interest, and the members have shown a gratifying proficiency in Debate and Oratory. Its Final Celebration will be held on the night before the close of the session.

T E X T - B O O K S , S T A T I O N E R Y , & c.

For convenience of pupils, text-books, stationery, &c., will be furnished by Mr. William P. Dupuy.

B O A R D I N G D E P A R T M E N T.

The boarding department will be under the management of Mr. William P. Dupuy, in whose house the Assistant will reside. The terms for board are $15.00 per month, which will include every accommodation, except washing. Washing costs $1.00 per month. The pupils will be under the constant care and supervision of the Principal, both during and out of school hours. Parents are assured for their sons all the wholesome and refining influences of a polite and highly cultivated family. Good board can also be obtained on the same terms in private families residing in or near the village. The Principal will always make suitable provision for young gentlemen committed to his charge.

For further information, apply to Rev. Thomas Wharey, D. D., or Dr. J. D. Eggleston, Worsham, Prince Edward County, Virginia.

TESTIMONIALS.

[Copied from the Catalogue of 1880-'81.]

WORSHAM, VA., May 18, 1881.

Rev. Thomas Wharey, D. D., becomes my successor as Principal of Prince Edward Academy, and it affords me very great pleasure to express my high appreciation of his abilities as an instructor, and to ask for him the continuance of the patronage which has been so kindly extended to me. He has had years of successful experience in teaching, and is eminently qualified as a guide and preceptor of youth. To those desiring high educational advantages, and the best moral influences for their sons, I most cordially commend the school.

JAMES R. THORNTON.

HAMPDEN SIDNEY COLLEGE, May 18, 1882.

Since the publication of the last catalogue, Mr. James R. Thornton, Principal of the Prince Edward Academy, has accepted a Professorship in Central University, Ky., and Rev. Thomas Wharey, D. D., has become Principal of the Academy.

Dr. Wharey is widely and favorably known as a scholar and divine, and has been eminently successful as an instructor of youth. Receiving the first honor at Hampden Sidney College immediately after his graduation, he was employed for two years as assistant Professor in that Institution. Soon after the conclusion of his course in the Union Theological Seminary, he was made Tutor in the Hebrew Language. Subsequently, though laboriously occupied as preacher and pastor, he has generally instructed a few private pupils in his own house, and some of them who have been received as students of Hampden Sidney College have testified, by their scholarship and deportment, the excellent influence exercised by that teacher on the mind and heart.

Mr. Whiting, who has consented to become assistant to Dr. Wharey, now pursuing his studies at the University of Virginia, is a graduate and first honor-man of Hampden Sidney of the class of 1880. He has, as I believe, all the qualities, intellectual and moral, needed to make him a most efficient and successful teacher. I believe that no academy in this country offers greater advantages, intellectual and moral, than the Prince Edward Academy, under its present management.

J. M. P. ATKINSON,

President and Professor of Moral Philosophy.

We fully endorse the above testimonial.

L. L. HOLLADAY,
Professor of Physical Science.

WALTER BLAIR,
Professor of Latin.

DEL. KEMPER,
